Dear Parents,

This week, on Wednesday 16th October, Year 5 and Year 6 will have the opportunity to meet author Atinuke in a virtual ReadingZone Live event, as part of our celebrations for Black History Month.

This event will explore Brilliant Black British History, Atinuke's eye-opening story of Britain, focusing on a part of our past that has mostly been left out of the history books. From science and sport to literature and law, children's author Atinuke celebrates the brilliant Black people who have helped build Britain.

During her event, Atinuke will take audiences through historical topics such as the world wars, slavery, the industrial revolution, Windrush and the Black Lives Matter movement. ReadingZone is making available discounted copies of Brilliant Black British History (Bloomsbury Children's Books).

Brilliant Black British History (paperback)

An eye-opening story of Britain, focusing on a part of our past that has mostly been left out of the history books: the brilliant Black history of England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland.

Join this fascinating journey through the ages, brought to life through Atinuke's fascinating storytelling and illustrated scenes, detailed maps, and timelines created by illustrator Kingsley Nebechi. From science and sport to literature and law, celebrate the brilliant Black people who have helped build Britain.

To order a discounted copy of Brilliant Black British History by Atinuke & Kingsley Nebechi (discounted price £7 RRP£8.99) plus a signed bookplate from Atinuke, please complete the google form here or scan the barcode and make payment via the School Gateway app by Monday 21st October, 2024. Orders will not be placed if payment has not been received.
